For Live Classes, Recorded Lectures, Notes & Past Papers visit: www.megalecture.com

DISCURSIVE WRITING

- -requires abit of your opinion. Not 'I'. Vague opinion
- -state both sides of the topic
- -balanced argument
- -be positive mostly
- -short sentences with adjectives, adverbs
- -your feelings do not matter except in conclusion
 - Start opinated conclusion from individual, family, society, and then community
 - Introduction includes general information, social behavior, normal and taboo things
 - 2nd paragraph has history/ approach to topic
 - 3rd paragraph has present condition of the subject
 - 4th paragraph has future expectations about the subject
 - 6th paragraph is closing

Example topics:

- 1. Grandparents
- 2. Fire
- 3. What effect do you think religions have on civilizations?

100 226 7001102